INFORMATION: Workshop Sessions & Exhibition

Strand 1: Strand 1 Using eTwinning tools in a pedagogic way

Location: ROOM VIRGO, 50 participants.

This workshop will provide examples of how various ICT tools are used in a practical way in running eTwinning projects. There will also be hands-on opportunities for participants to experience some of the new features of the TwinSpace.

Chairs: Thomas Maier / Christina Crawley

Strand 2: Models for School Collaboration: Prize winners

Location: ROOM LEO, 70 participants

In order to see how this year's top European projects got to the top of the list, this session provides an opportunity for participants to hear an expert present an analysis of the winning projects as well as hearing directly from the teachers involved. The session allows for an exchange of good practice and interaction.

Chairs: Sylvia Binger / Tiina Sarisalmi

Session I: Age categories 1, 2 and 3, runners-up - Ioanna Kominou

Session II: Age categories 1, 2 and 3, winners – Cees Brederveld

Session III: Science & Maths projects & French Language prize, winners and runners-up – Palmira Ronchi

Strand 3: Creativity & Innovation

Location: ROOM KEPLER, 100 participants

To be creative does not always imply being a genius. You are creative whenever you find an answer to a question in your own way. If the solution is new and helpful for you, it is creative. You can be creative in any field or topic. Thus, being creative is an essential part of any problem solving process. These sessions explore how creativity can be brought into your everyday thinking and work.

Chair: Alexa Joyce

Session I: Exploring Creativity – Bettina Zeidler

Session II: Exploring Creativity – Bettina Zeidler

Session III: Creativity in your classroom – Sylvia Binger

Strand 4: e-Safety and eTwinning

Location: ROOM AQUARIUS+TAURUS, 70 participants

Schools are an environment for learning and interaction where young people should be able to develop safely and responsibly. New technologies offer teachers and pupils exciting opportunities to learn and interact in virtual spaces that go far beyond the classroom. How can teachers empower their students to stay safe and responsible in their online pursuits?

Chair: Sofia Aslanidou

Session I: Safety in virtual places
Session II: Safety in virtual places
Session III: Safety in virtual places

Strand 5: eTwinning in practice

Location: ROOM TYCHO, 130 participants

Members of the teacher team will conduct two of workshop giving practical examples of their work in eTwinning. They will explore the application of the modules and other pedagogical approaches for teachers involved in eTwinning. The third workshop will be devoted to the work of eTwinning Ambassadors at European level.

Session I: Cees Bredeveld & Palmira Ronchi – eTwinning for Secondary School teachers & teachers of Maths & Science.
Session II: Tiina Salisalmi & Ioanna Kominou – eTwinning for Secondary & Primary Teachers
Session III: European network of eTwinning ambassadors

Chair: Anne Gilleran & Cees Brederveld

Exhibition

Location: FOYER

Another interesting feature of the conference is the exhibition of European eTwinning activities organised by all twenty-nine national eTwinning Support Services (NSS) as well as by the top eight eTwinning finalist projects. In this way, the exhibition gives a unique view of the variety and scope of eTwinning.
