Learning Event 2019: eTwinning i digitalne kompetencije u predškolskim ustanovama

Expert: Charlotte Carson

Sexist language, gender stereotyping and sexual harassment has been documented in secondary schools in the UK in a report from 2017. In this online expert-talk you will hear teacher Charlotte Carson talk about how to set up a feminist community and run workshops on how to tackle sexism. You will get practical knowledge and ideas that can be implemented in your own institution.

Participants will also get the highlights and important conclusions from the conference "Feminism in Schools" which takes place in London 15- 16 November 2019, organised by Charlotte Carson.

Online Seminars are live communication sessions where you have a chance to learn, talk and discuss with your peers. The topics covered by Online Seminars are related to pedagogy and eTwinning aspects in general. They are led by an expert, and are run in a widely-spoken European language. You can get a certificate for participating in this event.

Learning Events are short intensive online events on a number of themes. The themes are related to pedagogical aspects in particular. They are led by an expert, and include active work and discussion among teachers. Learning Events include asynchronous and sometimes synchronous activities, and are run in a widely-spoken European language. You can receive certification for participating in this event.
